

CONCERTGOING CLUES

The Barber of Seville remains legendary for the fiasco of its opening night in 1816. Just as audiences today sometimes display poor behavior, the audience that night heckled Rossini because they admired another composer more. One of the lead singers tripped and got a nosebleed, moments before singing; a guitar broke during a love song; and in the midst of the chaos, a cat wandered onstage! Rossini actually left the theatre early and went to sleep.

Although the performers in the Field Band do not expect any cats to wander across the stage during the concert, they hope their performance might go more smoothly than Barber's premiere. Use these clues to make this concert successful!
